Location and travel

The venue of the Hackathon is GamerLand:

1033 Budapest, Szentendrei út 89-95.

https://gamerland.hu/

- If needed you sleep in GamerLand during the 24 hours, but only during that time.
- GamerLand does not have showers, we recommend to book close to the venue.
- Food and drinks will be provided for the whole event, including free beer.

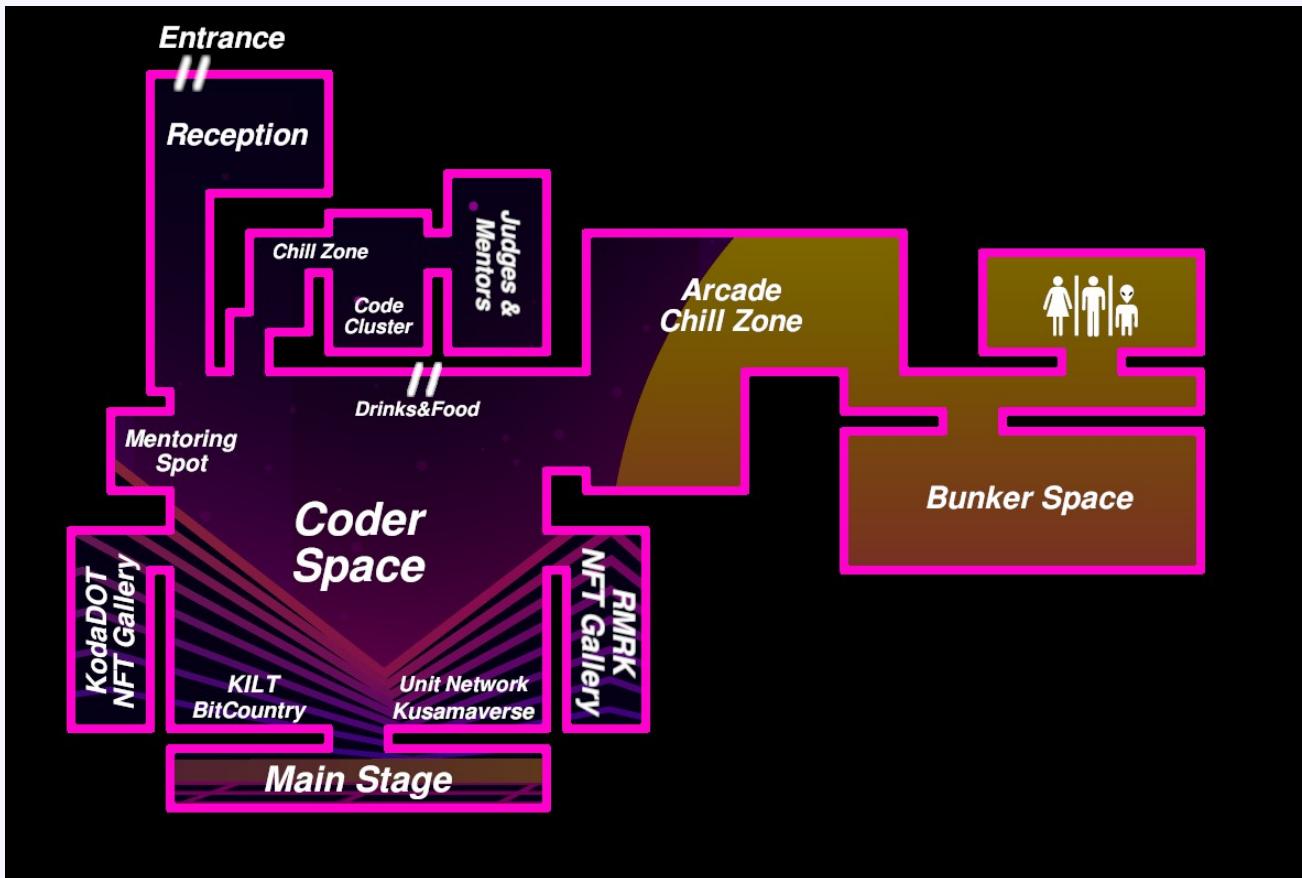

Currency of Hungary

The currency in Hungary is: Hungarian Forint (HUF). Many shops accept Euros, but the exchange rates are considerably worst. We recommend you to exchange EURs to HUF.

Most location accept credit cards (crypto is not yet there though).

We don't recommend to use the EuroNet or the airport money exchanges as they have bad rates.

Travel from the airport to the central city and then to GamerLand

Budapest has a very good public transport system, feel free to use it.

You can take a taxi to get to the city, but there is a way cheaper option that takes you directly to Deák Tér, it is the bus 100E. You need to buy a single ticket for that bus.

From Deák Tér and generally, from the central city, it is easy to get to GamerLand taking a bus, metro or trains.

Tickets in Budapest

Depending on your arrival we recommend you to buy the 72 hour or weekly ticket from the vending machines – you can find them at every metro, bus station and at the airport as well.

Taxi

Taxi system is well-regulated in Hungary. Legitimate taxis always provide the same fees.

Initial fee: 1000 HUF

Price per kilometer: 400 HUF

Price per minute: 100

At arrival, the taxi driver must be able to give you a receipt and they should also accept credit cards. Only take official taxis with taxi sign. The company called “Bolt” is a trusted taxi provider.
